- a) All category candidates interested in participating in the 3rd round of UGNEET 2026 should pay the “CAUTION DEPOSIT” on the dates notified above.
- b) Candidates who have reported to Medical / Dental College need not to pay the CAUTION DEPOSIT.
- c) The fee amount paid for other courses will not be considered as CAUTION DEPOSIT for 3rd round seat allotment. Such candidates have to pay CAUTION DEPOSIT separately.
- d) If a seat is allotted in the 3rd round, the CAUTION DEPOSIT, deposited by the candidate will be adjusted.
- e) If a candidate is allotted a seat in the 3rd round and fails to get admission in the college or wishes to cancel it or does not report to the college, the CAUTION DEPOSIT paid by the candidate will be forfeited. (Must also pay penalty as per rules – will not be eligible to participate in future years of medical counseling including All India Counseling)

4. OPTION ENTRY (From 11.00 am on 25-09-2026 to 29-09-2026- 11.00 am)

- a) All candidates who pay CAUTION DEPOSIT will be allowed to enter the options for Medical and Dental Courses.
- b) All candidates should enter the new options. Previously entered options will not be considered.
- c) After the publication of the seat matrix, seats may be cancelled or seats that may be added to the seat matrix will also be considered for allotment. Therefore, candidates are advised to enter options in the order of priority for all the courses they are interested in joining, whether the seats are not shown in the seat matrix.
- d) This is because consequential vacancies may arise during the allotment process, and candidates may have an opportunity to secure a better seat if they have already included those options.
- e) Candidates shall not claim ignorance regarding the allotment of seats or reject the seats allotted to them, as seat allotment is made strictly based on the options exercised by the candidates and their order of merit.
- f) Candidates are being informed several times in each round to know the fee structures and then enter their options. However, after allotment of seats, it has been seen that some parents are requesting the KEA to cancel the seat saying that they do not want the seat as they do not know the fee details.
- g) Therefore, candidates are advised to pay attention to the fee structure and then enter the options in which they are interested in joining the college-course in order of priority.
- h) If a candidate does not want the college/course allotted to him or leaves that college after joining, it will be considered as a serious lapse in the management of social responsibility. Please note that other candidates are waiting in line for seat allotment.
- i) Before participating in the 3rd round seat allotment, candidates are advised to study the seats availability /seat matrix and also by verifying the fee structure for different seats.
- j) Candidates are once again instructed to participate in the 3rd round only after confirming the fee structure and after discussing with their parents.

5. INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES WHO HAVE ALREADY REPORTED TO COLLEGES

- a) Candidates who are participating in this round mean they are looking for up-gradation of a seat than the allotted seat in the earlier round. As soon as the seat is allotted in this round, the seat allotted in the previous rounds will be automatically cancelled and those seats will not be able to be withdrawn for any reason and it is mandatory to take admission in the allotted college in this round.
- b) For any reason candidates will not be allowed to continue in their earlier allotted colleges. As already informed the earlier allotted seat will not be in their favour and therefore such candidates should invariably report to the allotted colleges. There is no chance of getting back the earlier allotted seat.
- c) If a candidate does not get any seat in this round then the seat allotted to him / her in the earlier round if any stands confirmed.

6. THIRD ROUND SEAT ALLOTMENT PROVISIONAL RESULTS

- a) For admission to Medical and Dental courses, as per the norms the 3rd round seat allotment will be conducted based on merit and by considering the priority of options entered by the candidates and the provisional results will be hosted on the KEA Website.
- b) The provisional result of the KEA 3rd round seat allotment will be published after the result of the third round seat allotment of the All India Quota.
- c) Those who participated and got a seat under the third round of All India Quota and later got a seat allotted in the 3rd round in KEA, if they wish to retain the KEA seat, they can retain the KEA seat only if they personally submit a written request to the KEA; (within a day after the announcement of provisional results)
- d) Otherwise, such candidates will not be considered for the KEA 3rd round final seat allotment even if they participated in the KEA third round of seat allotment and CAUTION DEPOSIT paid will not be refunded.

7. PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY.

- a) Candidates who have already taken admission in Engineering, Agriculture, and Veterinary etc colleges are advised to participate in this round only if they are interested in medical / dental seats and ensure that they receive the original documents from the colleges they are studying in by the specified date.
- b) However, it is the responsibility of the candidates to get the original documents from the colleges they have taken admission in and submit them to the newly allotted colleges within the specified time and get admission.
- c) If the candidate does not get admission in the seat allotted in this round, he will lose the seat on both sides and will not have any seat and will not pay any refund of any fee.

8. STEPS TO BE TAKEN AFTER 3RD ROUND SEAT ALLOTMENT FINAL RESULTS

The candidates who may be allotted in the 3rd round seat allotment final results should invariably pay the fees (if not paid or by deducting the caution deposit) as per the schedule and compulsorily take admission in the allotted college along with all the original documents on or before the last date to be fixed, failing which legal action will be initiated in accordance with law against such candidates.
