Important notes

• Theory examinations are scheduled from 19 to 28 November 2026. Practical examinations are scheduled from 30 November to 2 December 2026.

• Stream, subject-group and subject-code applicability matters. The full official notice and school-issued subject list should be checked for exact paper mapping.

• The source reports the timetable by subject code and sitting; confirm the subject codes registered by the student with the school.

• The published schedule lists no general paper on some intervening dates; this summary does not imply a separate examination on those dates.
