

CLAT PG 2026 Set B Question Paper with Solution (Memory Based)

1.

Which Section requires police to record reasons for arrest?

2.

Under which Article must “grounds of arrest be communicated to the arrested person”?

3.

If a person is arrested under UAPA and not given written grounds of arrest, can he be remanded or must he be released?

4.

Analyse Prabir Purkayastha (2024) and how it changes the law of remand/grounds of arrest.

5.

Compare Arnesh Kumar with newer BNSS provisions — what stayed the same, what changed?

6.

Which Article protects against involuntary narco-analysis?

7.

Under what section of the Evidence Act can information discovered via narco-analysis (if voluntary) be admitted?

8.

True or False: “An accused has an absolute right to demand a narco-analysis test.”
