2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Most of us were taught that generosity is about giving freely, and putting other's needs before our own. While there is nothing wrong with this definition, it remains somewhat incomplete. To think of generosity only in terms of giving can limit us.

Being truly generous is as much about being open to receiving graciously from others. Allowing the other to 'give' to us — whether it be a compliment, an act of kindness, emotional support or even material help in times of need is, interestingly, as much of an act of kindness as extending ourselves to give to others. .

Correspondingly, we need to be aware of a possible 'greed of giving' that can sometimes be a thinly disguised power trip! It's time we began to understand generosity as a kind of two way street. With all the talk about how 'selfish' we are today, it's pretty amazing to see how many people have real difficulty being able to receive.

There may be at least four reasons why people have trouble receiving. May be they simply haven't learned how to graciously receive a gift or assistance from another. Or it could be that they don't want to feel under obligation to the giver. It's also possible they consider receiving a weakness, and want to always come across as the strong or defining part of a relationship: to receive, for some, is to acknowledge that they have needs, or are vulnerable, and they find this very hard or perhaps, most sadly, they don't feel they deserve what they receive.

Answer the following questions :

- (i) What is the Traditional definition of Generosity ? 1
- (ii) Why is receiving an act of kindness ? 2
- (iii) What might people give us besides material help ? 2
- (iv) Why do some people find it hard to receive ? 1
- (v) How can we show generosity besides giving ? 1
- (vi) What does it mean to receive a compliment ? 2
- (vii) What is the opposite of 'receive' ? 1

3. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Discipline is the watch word of a proper social life. Men living in a society need to follow certain rules which may help a smooth functioning of the social set up and this following of the rules is what is called discipline. The institution or organisation which follows its rules is called a disciplined institution. Those who are members of such an institution or organisation also feel a sense of satisfaction and pride that they belong to a disciplined body. But to be disciplined means to adjust to curtailment of certain liberties in order to accommodate the liberty of brother members. We as social beings, have our liberties but have to keep our liberties under control and limits so that the liberty of the others is not disturbed. A.G. Gardiner has rightly said. "Liberty is not a personal affair". While moving on the road, we have to follow the signals at the crossings, if we violate them the accidents are bound to occur. Even in personal life a disciplined routine keeps us healthy but, if we become reckless in our ways of life, we shall end in distress and disease. Therefore being a social man we have to follow the rules, the violation of which will bring chaos and confusion.

Answer the following questions :

- (i) What is the watch word of a proper Social life ?
- (ii) What is meant by discipline according to the passage ?
- (iii) What do members of a discipline Institution feel ?

- (iv) Why do we need to curtail certain liberties to be disciplined ? 1
- (v) Who said, "Liberty is not a Personal affair" ? 1
- (vi) What happens if we violate traffic signals, while moving on the road ? 1

A few moments later we all lifted our eyes in awe as a spectacular array of South African Jets, helicopters and troop carriers roared in perfect formation over the Union Buildings. It was not only a display of pinpoint precision and military force, but a demonstration of the military's loyalty to democracy, to a new government that had been freely and fairly elected. Only moments before, the highest generals of the South African defence force and police their chests bedecked with ribbon and medals from days gone by, saluted me and pledged their loyalty. I was not unmindful of the fact that not so many years before they would not have saluted but arrested me.
