CBSE Class 12 Home Science 2005 - Set 69/1

Question Paper

Conducted by the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE)

Time Allowed: 3 Hours Maximum Marks: 70

General Instructions

(i) This question paper contains 34 questions.
(ii) All questions are compulsory.
(iii) Marks are indicated against each question.
(iv) Read each question carefully and answer to the point.
(v) Attempt all parts of a question together.

Questions

1. State two psychological characteristics of a child whose one limb is missing.

2. Mention two important points you will keep in mind while deciding what you should put in packed lunch for a child.

3. State two ways in which ORS works in the body.

4. What two precautions will you take to make sure that the honey you are buying is not adulterated ?

5. Suggest two ways by which one can increase one's real income.

6. Give one reason for increase in energy requirement of a lactating mother and state approximately how much does this need increase.

7. Give two reasons why you will take a decision to go to the 'Consumer Redressal Forum'.

8. What is the current rate of interest on money put in savings account of a bank and in small deposite in a post office ?

9. Name two types of diet modifications.

10. Give two ways in which your physique is influenced by vertical lines in clothes.

11. What are two ways to check that the garment length is cut on selvedge ?

12. Name various types of immunity.

13. Identify the problem a child is suffering from if the symptoms are fever 100° F and above, headache, drowsiness, pain and tenderness in muscles of the limbs. What is the mode of spread, season and the incubation period of this disease ?

14. Mention the body height and weight of a child at birth and at one year.

15. Keeping the family meal in focus, suggest two appropriate changes along with adequate reasons, in the food to be served to a person suffering from fever.

16. Present two points on how a TV advertisement about a consumer product compares with a label for the kind of information these two provide.

17. List four important instructions you will give regarding the hygiene of surfaces where food is handled, to a person who has come to help you with food preparation at home.

18. You have started some income generation activity which has begun to give profits. Give four reasons why you should start saving some money from these profits.

19. List two reasons for recording your weekly expenditure. Besides the information on items and days of the week, what two other informations would you like to include in this record ?

20. What is the meaning of 'money income' ? If you were to find out how much money income is being added to your family income, which three sources of family income will you examine ?

21. State four precaustions you must take while removing animal stains from your cotton shirt.

22. Present four arguments to a person to convince her that the dress she is buying has balance and emphasis in its design.

23. You have bought one metre material for your sleeveless top and the tailor says it is not enough. With your knowledge of estimating the material, present two arguments to show what the tailor has said is right or wrong.

24. What are the four indicators to judge the quality of workmanship of a ready-made garment ?

25. If you want to start a business of selling home-made 'jams and jellies' what further training do you require after your Higher Secondary education with Home Science background ? How will this training help you and from where will you acquire it ?

26. State three characteristics of a partially blind child coming to school and give three suggestions to help him adjust in the class.

27. What are six indicators which will tell you about the achievements in motor, cognitive, social and language development of a one-year old child ?

28. What are three important reasons for meal planning ? Explain three physical factors that influence meal planning.

29. Present six arguments in favour of investing the savings in PPF.

30. List six points you will keep in mind while selecting summer clothes for your tall and thin sister.

31. Explain how ICDS helps a mother in providing substitute care for her child and how this care compares to the care provided by siblings.

32. List two good reasons for drinking safe water. Choose one method of making water safe at home and explain how you will use it. Also state two important points for storing the safe water.

33. What are the salient features of the Consumer Protection Act ?

34. Kamla was shocked to see red patches on her silk blouse when she took it out of the tub in which she had soaked the clothes for some time, before washing. What could have gone wrong in her strategy of soaking clothes ? What other precaustions does she need to take while washing clothes on a daily basis and why ?

- End of Question Paper -