CBSE Class 12 Home Science 2006 - Set 69/1

Question Paper

Conducted by the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE)

Time Allowed: 3 Hours Maximum Marks: 70

General Instructions

(i) This question paper contains 30 questions.
(ii) All questions are compulsory.
(iii) Marks are indicated against each question.
(iv) Read each question carefully and answer to the point.
(v) Attempt all parts of a question together.

Questions

1. Mention two typical facial expressions of a two year old child, which will help you to recognize his/her anger.

2. Give two reasons why 'positive attitude' is necessary in a child suffering from any disability.

3. Give one reasons why green leafy vegatables should not be served to a person suffering from diarrhoea. Give the name of another food which should not be served in the meal.

4. Give two arguments in favour of supplementing the family income.

5. Point out one benefit and one limitation of investing in shares.

6. Name two fabrics you would like to select for a dress that you want to be wrinkle free.

7. State the two instructions you will find for ironing on the label of a nylon shirt.

8. List four self-employment opportunities available to you on the basis of the skills in 'meal planning' and 'interior decoration'. that one acquires while studying Home Science.

9. What are the two ways of getting immunity against diseases for a child during first one year of his life and how does it help him ?

10. Compare the two main symptoms of measles and chieken-pox.

11. Mention four instructions you will give to a caregiver of a two year old child regarding child's stimulation for cognitive development.

12. List four objectives of 'ICDS'.

13. Write four things you will always check before storing water for drinking.

14. Tell your friends four things that she must always remember if she wants to buy food that is not adulterated.

15. Your mother was persuaded to buy a saree from a vendor at home. List four things that can go wrong with this purchase.

16. Mention four areas of investment to be considered for availing tax benefits.

17. Present one characteristic each of a good seam, placket, hem and pocket that you will check for quality, when you are buying a ready-made garment.

18. Write three educational problems generally faced by a child suffering from hearing impairment and three suggestions to sort out these problems.

19. State with example how availability of resources and regional preferences influence meal planning.

20. Keeping the special requirements of an old person in the family tell the person who cooks in your house three ways in which she can modify family meal to suit these needs.

21. Your sister is aware of only one responsibility as a consumer i,e., 'use information wisely." Using appropriate examples tell her about three other responsibilities.

22. You are talking to a group of people about consumer aids, which are not in printed form. Mention two advantages and one limitation of any such aid, which you would like to bring to the notice of the consumer and say why.

23. List six things you can do if you are aware of your rights as a consumer.

24. How do straight lines in a dress influence the personality of a person ? Use examples to explain your point.

25. You have engaged a person to help you launder your clothes. Name three auxiliaries besides detergents, that you would like him to use frequently on your clothes and state one reason each to justify your selection.

26. Select the correct method of washing, and all the appropriate requirements to launder a pure wool scarf. Support your answer with adequate reasons.

27. State any two characteristics of motor developments and two of language development in the first six months of a child's life, which become prerequisites for next development in that area.

28. Giving adequate reasons, explain to your sister four things, she should be doing in order to ensure hygienic handling of food in her kitchen.

29. What is meant by 'total income'? If you want to make an estimate of total money income coming to you, name various sources that you would examine and state why.

30. Explain with the help of examples and / or diagrams, how balance is achieved in the design of the dress and what is its effect on the dress ?

- End of Question Paper -