(iv) Separate instructions are given with each question/part, wherever necessary.

(v) Adhere to the prescribed word limit while answering the questions.

Section A - Reading Skills (20 marks)

1. Read the passage given below:

(1) The art of conversation, like any art, is a skill of elegance, nuance and creative execution. I happen to believe that there is an art to everything we do, and why not? Without flair and panache most things become a drudgery. Why settle for drudgery when you can have art?

(2) When it comes to the art of conversation, we've all met people who seem to have the knack for it. They can talk to anybody about anything and they seem to do it with complete ease. And while it's true that there are those who are born with the gift of the gab, luckily for the rest of us, conversation skills can be developed and mastered.

(3) Conversation is a form of communication; however, it is usually more spontaneous and less formal. We enter into conversations for purposes of pleasant engagement in order to meet new people, to find out information and to enjoy social interactions. As far as types of conversation, they vary anywhere from intellectual conversations and information exchanges to friendly debates and witty banter.

(4) While there is more to having good conversation skills than being a comedian, a dramatic actor, or a great story teller, it is not necessary to become more gregarious, animated, or outgoing.

1. (continued)

(5) Instead, you can develop the ability to listen attentively, ask fitting questions, and pay attention to the answers, all qualities essential to the art of conversation. With diligent practice and several good pointers, anyone can improve his or her conversation skills.

(6) People who are genuinely interested in others are usually interesting themselves. Why? Because they are more open to learning about and understanding new things. Showing interest also encourages the other person to be relaxed and share information more freely. Display attentiveness by keeping good eye contact and listening actively.

(7) If you happen to be shy and need time to warm up before you share your own views, you can ask open-ended questions or encourage the other person to elaborate on their insights. This kick-starts the conversation and before you know it you are engaged in a good conversational flow.

(8) To start a conversation, go up to someone and introduce yourself. It is both polite and necessary to start off things smoothly.

(9) When the occasion calls for it, you can offer a handshake and then smile and make eye contact. Being friendly puts the other person at ease and opens the door for him or her to introduce themselves.

1. (continued)

(10) The art of conversation, like any skill, takes practice. Period. Do not expect to be adept after your first few attempts. It will take practice as well as exposure to many different social situations.

Based on your understanding of the passage, answer the questions given below.

1(i). Complete the sentence by choosing an appropriate option:

The art of conversation is a skill of _____.

(A) uniformity and compatibility
(B) friendliness and consensus
(C) assertion and ease
(D) sophistication and creativity

1(ii). Comment on the writer's reference to conversation skills as something you are 'born' with.

1(iii). List two reasons why people enter into conversation.

1(iv). Select the option that conveys the opposite of 'witty', as used in paragraph 3.

(A) educated
(B) creative
(C) ignorant
(D) boring

1(v). The writer would not agree with the given statements based on paragraphs 3 to 5, EXCEPT:

(A) Conversations are meant only for purposes of research.
(B) It is important to be outgoing to be a good conversationist.
(C) Conversational skills can be improved with regular practice.
(D) Attentive listening is important only while debating.

1(vi). According to the author, showing interest in others leads to interesting conversation. Based on your understanding of paragraphs 5 and 6, list one way how a good listener can make the other person speak more freely.

1(vii). How can one warm up before one shares one's views?

1(viii). Complete the given sentence with an appropriate inference, with respect to the following:

2. Read the passage given below:

(1) Travel today, whether for purposes of business or leisure, takes up 25 - 30% of the annual budget of a family, according to a survey conducted in 2021.

(2) Today, it is trending to spend money on experiences rather than consumables. Travel is no longer looked at as just visiting a new place. It underlines an ethos, a culture, a pandora's box full of surprises. People who love to travel enjoy relaxation, new cultures, foreign food or incredible landscapes different from their normal surroundings. Some people enjoy the motion of travelling, being on a boat, plane, train or bus. The list is endless and the reasons range from simple to complex. The study further revealed changing trends in travel tourism. While some are serious travellers who fall under the category of medical tourism, a large percentage are splurging on pleasure travel. When questioned on why, what are the benefits or purpose, the responses can be categorized under a few common headings.

2. (continued)

(3) Those who do it for fun, for a sense of adventure, to take on risks and challenges are the 18 - 30 year-olds. While the 30 - 40 years bracket couple fun with education, a thirst for knowledge and experience, to see beautiful places, explore cultures and cuisines. They believe that an ever-changing environment is stimulating, refreshing and brings endless learning opportunities. Those between the 40 - 50 years travelled to expand their minds and challenge perspectives. They want a break from their soul-destroying lifestyles. The 60 years and above were the NOW travellers, they feel they might drop dead the day before they retire or be too old and unfit to travel, or take on, physical challenges. The in-between 50 - 60 years adopt the best of both worlds.

(4) The survey concluded that travel has become an integral part of people's lives, and it provides us our greatest stories, our most cherished moments and countless learnings that broaden our horizons and above all teach us about ourselves and others.

Age-wise distribution of holiday-goers in percentages

2. (continued)

Age	Adventure	Education	Relaxation	Now Travellers
Below 20	39	38	6	17
20–30	44	28	12	16
30–50	25	24	30	21
